GET BOTTLED

MAKE A STATEMENT WITH TERRA-COTTA VASES IN ORGANIC SHAPES AND SOFT FINISHES. $225-$350, 18 KARAT. FOR WHERE-TO-BUY, SEE STYLESOURCE.

easy art

Go big or go home with supersized prints that'll give your loft that New York art-collector vibe without the art collector's budget. 36" x 45" prints, $300 each, LoftART Collection, Bruce McGaw Graphics.

LITTLE BIT COUNTRY

COUNTRY HAS GONE CHIC WITH A FRESH MODERN FEEL AND HOT RUSTIC TOUCHES (JUST REMEMBER TO DITCH THE CHINTZ AND RUFFLES). CONTEMPORARY COUNTRY BY EMILY CHALMERS, $38.

signature style

The limited-edition Sérénité Collection d'Art series of four fountain pens from Waterman Paris, each designed after an element, is the ultimate in penmanship. Crafted in both France and Japan (think precious finishes), you just know they're destined for the well-manicured hands of the ultrarich and very famous. $12,500 each.

LITTLE BIT ROCK 'N' ROLL

Ultramod design/architecture firm Future Systems has designed it all, from museums to champagne buckets. Now they're rocking this high-shine limited-edition bench. Approximately $12,000, Amanda Leveté for Future Systems, Established & Sons.

Hot Metal

Park yourself on something truly unique—a sculptural chair made in Senegal from recycled oil drums. $1,480, Roseland Gallery.
