CANADA'S DECORATING MAGAZINE

BRILLIANT before & after makeovers

SHOPPING ETC

Comfortably mixing furniture and art from different eras, Dante and Françoise Larcade, owners of Roseland Gallery (702 Queen St. W., 416-869-9229), take a balanced approach to style. New to hip Queen Street, the gallery-cum-antique shop is set up as a series of vignettes. Look for beautiful 17th-century doors from the south of France, 21st-century steel tables from New York, old European oil paintings, and new work by Toronto artist Paul Collins.
